

Massimiliano Bosio

Degree in Business Economics in Turin and a Master's Degree in Business Administration (MBA) from SDA Bocconi in 2001.

Mr. Bosio began his professional career in the field of consulting at Andersen Consulting - Accenture and then continued at Banca Nazionale del Lavoro.

In 2003 he was hired by Banca Monte dei Paschi di Siena S.p.A. as part of the Organisation Division where he underwent various professional experiences, taking on increasing responsibilities in the organisational, credit and commercial areas.

In July 2018, he was appointed Executive Manager and, at the same time, Head of the Group Organisation Area with the task of overseeing areas such as innovation, regulations and work processes to support the performances of the business lines as well as reorganisation of the risk control and governance organizational units.

In May 2021, he was appointed Group Chief Audit Executive, Head of the Internal Audit Function, with the mission of independently ensuring the regularity of operations and risk trends, as well as assessing the efficiency of the overall internal control system.

He has been a member of the Board of Directors of AIIA (Italian Association of Internal Auditors) since June 2023.