PRESS RELEASE

pursuant to Article 36 and 43 of the Regulation adopted by Consob with resolution No. 11971 of 14 May 1999, as subsequently amended and supplemented (the “Issuers’ Regulation”)

CASH INCREASE IN THE CONSIDERATION OF THE VOLUNTARY PUBLIC EXCHANGE OFFER CONCERNING ALL THE ORDINARY SHARES OF MEDIOBANCA – BANCA DI CREDITO FINANZIARIO SOCIETÀ PER AZIONI

WAIVER OF THE 66.7% THRESHOLD CONDITION

Siena, 2 September 2025 – With reference to the voluntary public exchange offer (the “Offer”) pursuant to Articles 102 and 106, paragraph 4, of Legislative Decree No. 58 of 24 February 1998, as subsequently amended and supplemented (the “TUF”) launched by Banca Monte dei Paschi di Siena S.p.A. (“BMPS” or the “Offeror”) on all the shares of MEDIOBANCA – Banca di Credito Finanziario Società per Azioni (“Mediobanca”), including treasury shares directly and/or indirectly held by Mediobanca from time to time, whose Acceptance Period commenced on 14 July 2025, the Offeror hereby announces, pursuant to Articles 36 and 43 of the Issuers’ Regulation, the following.

Unless otherwise defined, capitalised terms used in this press release have the meanings attributed to them in the document relating to the Offer, approved by Consob with resolution No. 23623 of 2 July 2025 and published on 3 July 2025 (the “Offer Document”), available on the BMPS website (<https://www.gruppomps.it/en/>).

1. INCREASE IN THE CONSIDERATION OF THE OFFER BY MEANS OF A CASH COMPONENT

A. Increase in the Consideration of the Offer by means of a cash component amounting to Euro 0.90 for each share tendered

The Board of Directors of BMPS, at its meeting convened under the chairmanship of Mr. Nicola Maione and concluded yesterday evening, resolved to increase the Consideration of the Offer and to pay, for each Share Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the same Offer, an overall consideration, not subject to adjustments (except as indicated in the Offer Document), represented by the Consideration in shares indicated in the Offer Document, equal to No. 2.533 newly issued BMPS Shares in execution of the Capital Increase Reserved to the Offer (the “Initial Consideration”), and by an additional cash consideration equal to Euro 0.90 (the “Cash Consideration” and, together with the Initial Consideration, the “Overall Consideration”).

The Board of Directors firmly believes that the increase in the consideration represents a further and concrete evidence of the industrial value of the transaction and the Offeror’s attention on the market, with the aim of maximising acceptance of the Offer and accelerating the value creation.

The Board of Directors also confirmed BMPS’s unchanged financial objectives, aimed at maintaining a solid capital position and one of the highest dividend policies in the sector, in the belief that all stakeholders will appreciate BMPS’ commitment and its expected results. In particular, even considering the aforementioned Cash Consideration equal to Euro 0.90, BMPS confirms that it will maintain (i) a solid capital base (Common Equity Tier 1 ratio pro-forma of approximately 16%¹ upon completion of the transaction) and (ii) a sustainable long-term dividend policy with a pay-out ratio of up to 100% of net income, supported by strong profitability, also thanks to estimated run-rate synergies of approximately Euro 0.7 billion per year before taxes, and by the accelerated use of DTAs.

Based on the price of the BMPS’ shares equal to Euro 6.093, corresponding to the official price of Euro 6.953 recorded at 23 January 2025 (the “Reference Date”), net of the dividend paid by BMPS on 21 May 2025 (i.e., Euro 0.86) (the “BMPS Dividend”), the Overall Consideration represents a “monetary” value equal to Euro 16.334 for each Mediobanca’s share and therefore includes a premium of 11.4% compared to the price of the Mediobanca’s share subject of the Offer, equal to Euro 14.667, corresponding to the official price of Euro 15.227 recorded on the Reference Date, net of the interim dividend paid by Mediobanca on 21 May 2025 (i.e., Euro 0.56) (the “Mediobanca Interim Dividend”).

The table below shows a comparison between:

- the official price of the Offeror’s shares recorded as of the Reference Date as well as the weighted averages of the official prices of the Offeror’s Shares for the 1, 2, 3, 6 and 12 months prior to the Reference Date (inclusive), net of the BMPS Dividend;
- the official price of the Mediobanca’s Shares recorded as of the Reference Date and the weighted averages of the official prices of the Mediobanca’s Shares for the 1, 2, 3, 6 and 12 months prior to the Reference Date (inclusive), net of the Mediobanca Interim Dividend;
- the Overall Consideration including (x) the implied Initial Consideration in shares (rounded to the third decimal number), calculated taking into account the Exchange Ratio, the official price of the Offeror’s shares as of the Reference Date (corresponding to the last Trading Day prior to the Communication Date), and the weighted averages of the official prices of the Offeror’s shares for the 1, 2, 3, 6 and 12 months prior to the Reference Date (inclusive), net of the BMPS Dividend and (y) the Cash Consideration;
- the related implied premiums.

Reference date	Weighted Average Price of the Offeror (Euro)	Weighted Average Price of the Issuer (Euro)	Overall Consideration (Euro)	Implied premium in the Overall Consideration
23 January 2025 (Reference Date)	6.093	14.667	16.334	11.4%
1-month prior to Reference Date (included)	6.094	14.235	16.337	14.8%
2-months prior to Reference Date (included)	5.687	13.803	15.304	10.9%
3-months prior to Reference Date (included)	5.239	13.948	14.170	1.6%
6-months prior to Reference Date (included)	4.707	14.143	12.824	(9.3%)
12-months prior to Reference Date (included)	3.864	13.368	10.687	(20.1%)

For illustrative purposes only, the implied “monetary” value of the Overall Consideration offered for each Mediobanca’s share that will be tendered in acceptance of the Offer is equal to Euro 20.776, i.e., equal to the sum of the consideration in shares of Euro 19.876 - equal to Euro 7.847 attributed to each BMPS’ share (corresponding to the official price as at 29 August 2025) multiplied by the Exchange Ratio of 2.533 - and the Cash Consideration of Euro 0.90.

Considering the announcement made on 31 July 2025 by Mediobanca whereby it announced to have cancelled (without reduction of the share capital) No. 20,000,000 treasury shares in its portfolio with consequent reduction of the number of outstanding shares, in the event of full acceptance of the Offer, i.e. if all of the maximum number of No. 813.279.689 Shares Subject to the Offer² (in addition to a maximum of 16,178,862 additional Mediobanca’s shares that may be allocated under certain existing incentive plans), are tendered in acceptance of the Offer, even during the Reopening of the Acceptance Period (or otherwise tendered in BMPS, in execution of the procedure for the fulfilment of the Sell-Out pursuant to Article 108, paragraph 2, of the TUF and/or the Joint Procedure, where applicable), (i) a total of No. 2.101.018.510 newly issued MPS Shares will be allocated to Mediobanca shareholders, based on the Initial Consideration, arising from the Capital Increase Reserved to the Offer, corresponding to approximately 63% of the share capital of MPS and assuming full subscription and payment of the Capital Increase Reserved to the Offer (fully diluted), and (ii) the Cash Consideration will be paid for a maximum total amount of approximately Euro 0.75 billion. Therefore, the aggregate “monetary” value of the Offer is equal to Euro 13.5 billion, of which Euro 12.8 billion as Initial Consideration in shares (taking into account the official price of BMPS shares as of the Reference Date) and approximately Euro 0.75 billion as Cash Consideration.

For the sake of clarification, please note that Mediobanca’s shareholders who adhered to the Offer prior to today’s date will also be entitled to receive the Overall Consideration, under the terms and conditions set forth in the Offer Document, as amended by this press release.

Please note that, on the date hereof, the Offeror provided Consob, pursuant to Article 37-bis of the Issuers’ Regulation, with the documentation certifying the establishment of the guarantee for the exact fulfillment of the obligation to pay the Cash Consideration, issued by Banca Widiba S.p.A..

² It should be noted that, on 31 July 2025, Mediobanca announced that it had cancelled (without a reduction of the share capital) 20,000,000 treasury shares held in portfolio. Consequently, following such change, the maximum number of shares subject to the Offer has decreased from 833,279,689 to 813,279,689 Mediobanca shares (in addition to a maximum of 16,178,862 additional Mediobanca shares that may be allocated under certain existing incentive plans).

B. Criteria for determining the Cash Consideration

The Board of Directors of BMPS has reached the decision concerning the increase in the Initial Consideration on the basis of its own analyses and considerations, updated with the advice and support of Financial Advisors. In particular, the update of the valuations was performed in order to take into account, inter alia: (i) the most recent market data, (ii) the economic position of BMPS and Mediobanca, as at 30 June 2025, (iii) the strategic plan “One Brand – One Culture”, updated and published by Mediobanca on 27 June 2025, (iv) the economic and financial effects concerning the value creation, in the scenario in which BMPS, as a result of the Offer, holds a shareholding of 35%, 66.67% or 100% of the share capital of Mediobanca.

In particular, the Board of Directors of BMPS, - with the support of the Financial Advisors - decided to update its valuation approach as set out below (the “Updated Valuation Approach”):

- a new valuation date has been defined, corresponding to 29 August 2025 (the “Valuation Update Date”);
- with regard to the valuation methodologies:
 - stock market listing method: (a) the official share prices of BMPS and Mediobanca as at the Valuation Update Date were used; (b) the volume-weighted average official prices of BMPS and Mediobanca shares (the so-called Volume Weighted Average Price) with referenced periods of 1, 2, 3, 6 and 12 months prior to the Valuation Update Date were used; the market prices of Mediobanca’s ordinary shares used in the analysis have been adjusted to exclude the 5.0% premium relating to the Consideration in Shares awarded by BMPS compared to the official stock market prices of Mediobanca’s ordinary shares as at 23 January 2025 and, where necessary, of the dividends paid by BMPS and Mediobanca in May 2025;
 - market multiples method: applied in the same manner as described in the Offer Document as of the Valuation Update Date, excluding Banca Popolare di Sondrio from the BMPS reference sample, given the completion of the BPER offer;
 - target prices method as published by research analysts: calculated in the same manner as described in the Offer Document, by using the target prices available up to the Valuation Update Date and published after the announcement of BMPS’s and Mediobanca’s most recent financial results.

Furthermore, with respect to the Updated Valuation Approach, the limitations and challenges of the valuation analyses previously conducted and highlighted in the Offer Document are confirmed, to which reference is made for further details.

With regard to the determination of the implied exchange ratios, the valuation methodologies indicated above were applied consistently with what has been described.

In addition, the exchange ratios of the above-described methods were also estimated by attributing the value creation associated to the industrial synergies, resulting from the transaction, net of restructuring costs, entirely to Mediobanca shareholders, i.e., without any attribution to BMPS shareholders.

For illustrative and presentation purposes only, the implied exchange ratio of the Overall Consideration integrated with the Cash Consideration (i.e., assuming an offer consisting solely of a share component) for each Mediobanca’s share tendered in acceptance of the Offer corresponds to 2.681 BMPS’ shares and is calculated as the ratio between: (a) the Overall Consideration supplemented with the Cash Consideration, and (b) the official BMPS' share price as of the Reference Date net of the BMPS Dividend.

Based on the new analyses carried out according to the valuation criteria, modified as described above, the following results emerged.

Methodology	Implied Exchange Ratio
	BMPS and Mediobanca valuations on a standalone basis		Valuations with attribution of industrial synergies to Mediobanca shareholders
	Minimum	Maximum	Minimum	Maximum
Stock market listing method
Spot	2.502		2.919
1 month	2.468		2.881
2 months	2.467		2.899
3 months	2.510		2.949
6 months	2.550		3.024
12 months	2.696		3.237
Market multiples method
P/E 2025	1.966	2.660	2.259	3.056
P/E 2026	2.034	2.753	2.322	3.142
Target prices method as published by research analysts	2.286	2.372	2.598	2.792

2. WAIVER OF THE THRESHOLD CONDITION

In accordance with the provisions of Article 43, paragraph 1, of the Issuers' Regulations, the Offeror hereby announces the waiver of the Threshold Condition and will therefore purchase all the Shares Subject to the Offer tendered in acceptance of the Offer, regardless the fact that the number of Shares Subject to the Offer is less than 66.67% of the voting rights exercisable at the Issuer's shareholders' meetings, notwithstanding that the Offer will not be completed and will be deemed to have failed if the shareholding held by the Offeror at the end of the Offer – as a result of acceptances of the Offer and/or any purchases made outside the Offer itself in accordance with the applicable regulations during the Acceptance Period (as extended, if applicable) – is less than 35% of the voting rights exercisable at the Issuer's shareholders' meetings (the latter threshold being non-waivable) (the "Minimum Threshold Condition") (see Section A, Paragraph A.1.1 of the Offer Document).

With reference to the Conditions for the Effectiveness of the Offer, different from the Threshold Condition, which remain unaffected, the Offeror – as indicated in the Offer Document – will announce the fulfilment/non-fulfilment, or any waiver thereof, in the communication of the final results of the Offer pursuant to Article 41, paragraph 6, of the Issuers’ Regulations, which will be published by 7:29 a.m. on the Trading Day prior to the Payment Date (see Section A, Paragraphs A.1.4. and A.17 of the Offer Document).
