

Andrea Rovellini

Degree in Economics & Business from the University of Parma.

Having gained extensive experience within the Planning & Control, Administration and Internal Auditing Divisions of the Barilla Group, in 1990 Mr. Rovellini entered the banking industry by joining Banca Popolare di Milano (BPM), where he covered roles of increasing responsibility within the areas of Planning & Control and Risk Management. He was appointed Head of the Planning & Control and Risk Management Division in 2007.

Between 2009 and 2012, Mr. Rovellini was Co-General Manager of Profamily S.p.A., a BPM start-up in the household lending sector, where he was responsible for Administration, IT, Operations and Human Resources. During his time at BPM, he was a member of the following Committees: Management, Business, Liquidity, ALM, Credit Policies and Cost Control. He also served on the Board of Directors of Anima SGR S.p.A.

Mr. Rovellini joined BMPS in January 2013 and was appointed Chief Risk Officer until 12th March.

Since the same date has been Chief Financial Officer.